

Quiz Answer Key

1. What kinds of sex can transmit HIV?
 - a. oral
 - b. vaginal
 - c. anal
 - d. all of the above

2. HIV infects and damages:
 - a. basophils
 - b. red blood cells
 - c. CD4 cells
 - d. platelets

3. Which of these things can transmit HIV?
 - a. shaking hands or hugging
 - b. kissing
 - c. sharing needles
 - d. all of the above

4. An HIV test can be:
 - a. a blood test
 - b. a swab of the inside of the cheek
 - c. a urine sample
 - d. a. and b.

5. When HIV develops into AIDS, a person's immune system can be overwhelmed. List 5 symptoms of AIDS.
any 5 of the following: extreme weakness or fatigue, rapid weight loss, frequent fevers that last for several weeks with no explanation, heavy sweating at night, swollen lymph glands, minor infections that cause skin rashes and mouth, genital, _____ and anal sores, white spots in the mouth or throat, chronic diarrhea, a cough that won't go away, trouble remembering things

6. True or false: When a pregnant woman has HIV, the baby always gets it, too. T F

7. True or false: People with AIDS are more likely to get infections and even cancer. T F

8. True or false: You can tell if people have HIV or AIDS by looking at them. T F

9. True or false: New drugs help people with HIV, but HIV-positive people can still develop AIDS or get deadly infections. T F

10. True or false: For people who have sex, condoms are the best protection against HIV. T F